LIAISON REPORTS

The Virginia Community College System (VCCS)

There was no report from the Virginia Community College System.

The Council of Higher Education for Virginia (SCHEV)

Dr. Gary Krapf, director of Gear Up, State Council of Higher Education for Virginia, presented higher education highlights from the Governor's proposed budget for 2012-2014. (Note: The Conference budget provides $211.6 million for higher education compared to $205.3 million in the introduced budget.)

Selected items of the budget include the following:

- $42.6 million for enrollment growth to include:
 - $5.0 million to continue growth toward 1,700 new in-state undergraduate seats at The College of William and Mary, the University of Virginia, James Madison University, and Virginia Tech;
 - $23.6 million for in-state enrollment undergraduate growth and transfers; and
 - $14.1 million to improve retention and graduation across the system.
- $28.6 million for incentive funding linked to specific initiatives that support the goals of the TJ 21 legislation such as increased degree production especially in STEM-H, year-round use of facilities, and greater use of distance learning.
- $10.5 million for targeted research, including:
 - $3.0 million for University of Virginia cancer research; and
 - $3.0 million for Virginia Commonwealth University cancer research.
- $18.5 million for in-state undergraduate and graduate financial aid.
- $11.7 million to increase Tuition Assistance Grants (TAG) [a non-need based grant for Virginia residents attending a participating private university or college] to nearly $2,800.

Virginia Department of Education (VDOE)

Mrs. Patty S. Pitts, assistant superintendent for teacher education and licensure, announced the following:

- The Teachers of Promise Conference was held March 23-24, 2012, at the Science Museum in Richmond, Virginia.
