NEW BUSINESS

1. Emergency Action Plans for After School Activities

Mr. Puglia led the Advisory Board in a discussion regarding Emergency Action Plans (EAP) and after school activities. Mr. Puglia explained that, currently, most schools do not have EAP's in place for after school activities, including sporting events at other schools. The Advisory Board stated that it would be beneficial to include athletic trainers and school nurses as part of the safety audit committee at each school required by Code Section 22.1-279.8. The Advisory Board asked VATA to provide guidance to athletic trainers regarding EAP's as well as petition to have changes made to Code Section 22.1-279.8 to include athletic trainers and school nurses on safety audit committees.

2. School Safety Audits and Protocols

Mr. Puglia led the Advisory Board in a discussion regarding school safety audits and protocols. The Advisory Board noted that the audits and protocols document was published in June 2000. The Advisory Board also stated that current laws do not require schools to have access to an AED. The Advisory Board asked VATA to contact the Department of Education to discuss updating the school safety audits and protocols document to include the importance of AED's.

3. New VHSL Regulations

Mr. Puglia led the Advisory Board in a discussion regarding new VHSL regulations. Ms. Corbatta stated that “tournament certified trainer” is not a recognized title, and the language should be correct to reflect the actual titles held by athletic trainers. The Advisory Board also discussed the inclusion of fevers as a determinant for exclusion from play.

4. Best Practices for Exertional Heat Illnesses

Ms. Whiteside led the Advisory Board in a discussion regarding best practices for exertional heat illnesses, and the necessity of core temperature evaluations. Ms. Whiteside informed the Advisory Board that measuring rectal temperature is the gold standard for core temperature evaluation. Additionally, NATA stated that failure to do so is not providing an appropriate standard of care and may negatively impact treatment for heat-related illnesses. The Advisory Board stated that proper education should be provided to athletes and their families early on in case the need arises to evaluate a heat-related illness.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mr. Heaberlin informed the Advisory Board that there are currently 1,391 Athletic Trainers that hold an active license with the Board of Medicine, and 1 that holds an inactive license.
