

Agency Response to Economic Impact Analysis

The Board of Nursing is commenting on the Analysis of the Department of Planning and Budget on proposed amended regulations for 18VAC90-27-10 et seq., relating to the use of simulation in nursing education programs in lieu of clinical experience with patients. The use of simulation is totally voluntary so these regulations would only apply if an educational program chose to use simulation. Therefore the economic impact is within the program's control.