Representative from the Virginia Department of Labor and Industry, Beverley Donati, Apprenticeship Division Director, was not present for the meeting.

Mr. Kirschner called the meeting to order at 1:08 p.m.

Call to Order

The committee reviewed the online and paper versions of the National Academy of Opticianry's Career Progression Program Books. After its review, the Committee determined the NAO text is an appropriate curriculum for related instruction in the apprenticeship program. The committee also recommended that any other curriculum to be used in the apprenticeship be subject to the same review and approval by the committee or board. Other curriculum should be substantially equivalent in content to the NAO Career Progression Program.
