Virtual Learning Advisory Committee

Virginia Department of Education Richmond, Virginia May 20, 2015

AGENDA

9:00	Welcon	ne and Introductions
9:30	Update on Current Initiatives
	MulStatDigi	ual Virginia tidivision Online Providers (MOPS) se Broadband Pricing Project tal Content rn24VA
12:00	Lunch (Provided)
1:00	Discussion
		Can Virtual Virginia be used to address critical teacher shortages in areas like mathematics?
		How might we leverage Virtual Virginia to support on-demand, individualized learning?
		Can Virtual Virginia be used to deliver high-quality professional development for teachers and staff?
	4.	How might Virtual Virginia be used to support challenging schools?
		What possible changes can be made in the registration process to help with the elimination of waiting lists?
		How does Virtual Virginia identify needs for developing new courses and expanding the program?
2:45	Closing	Comments

Adjourn

3:00